

New Rosewood Finish!

Roland's award-winning AC-series Acoustic Chorus guitar amplifiers are beloved for their rich, natural tone and lush stereo/multi-band chorus. Now, the AC-60 and AC-33 are available with beautiful rosewood-look cabinets, offering an alternative to the standard stage-ready black finish. The attractive woodgrain styling perfectly matches the atmosphere of your living room or studio, as well as the aesthetic of your acoustic guitars.

AC-60 This innovative stereo amp uses sophisticated signal processing to deliver a crisp sound with lush stereo/multi-band chorus — including Wide mode — plus delay/reverb and impressive Auto Anti-Feedback control. And with its two-channel Mic/Line design and stand-mountable configuration, the AC-60 is clearly heads above the competition.

- ▶ 30 W + 30 W stereo amps
- ▶ Guitar and XLR* Mic/Line channels
- ▶ Chorus, reverb, delay, three-band EQ, Anti-Feedback
- ▶ Aux input, stereo XLR out, DI out, sub-woofer out
- ▶ Carrying case included
- ▶ Now available in rosewood (model # AC-60-RW)

*Phantom power: DC 48 V, 10 mA Max
